

The magic leaf

Prologue

Back in the ancient times of superworld there was a magic leaf nobody ever found it for years it sat on its branch and waited 1 year a man who was called mr mridangam took it off its branch and nobody else has seen it

Chapter 1

Mr mridangam was resting when a fat man went in and before mr mridangam could do anything he turned him into stone he searched his house! But he could not find the leaf. 2 hours later the stone melted mr mridangam realised he was in great danger so he opened his underground safe and got his leaf and ran for hours till he got out of town where he had no sense of direction .

He looked left and he looked right and found a path and followed it. For hours he went and got to the exact tree he picked the leaf from he knew that it was a magic spot.

So he got the magic leaf it glowed and he was transported underground.

At that moment he heard some voices yes soon we will proceed and kidnap Mr. Mridangam our master leaf told us. and with that they sang a little song: we are the underground ogres nobody will stop us hee hee hee haa haa haa who are we the underground ogereereres !!!!so with that Mr. Mridangam ran and ran for hours with the ogres running after him

Mr Mridangam kept on running finally an exist he scurried into it the exist was narrow but he made it he ended in marshmallow

Chapter 2

This was a very soft and yummy marshmallow mr mridangam stuffed his face he did not know that it was enchanted so now he could not walk for moths !
He tried to get up but the enchantment was too strong!!

10 weeks later he got up and looked for the exist. for hours he walked ... And found a strange creature that went something like musttan I would describe it as this a creature with piano hair, gray & blue eyes, a red chin and a yellow and blue nose and only a head
then a swam of them came one had spacleis rited next to it one sprat and many others he got pushed down a hole . then suddenly something was happening to him five minuets later HE WAS ONE OF THE CREATURES WITH SRIDANGAM WITTEN NEXT TO HIM!! He could not see nor hear nor speak could only go musttan and float around ten days later he fell into another hole then all the another's went in to five minuets later poof they where all humans again .

But it is not over yet they still had to find the hole and so running they went all round the place one would look in marshmallow tree but the more sensible ones would look on the ground one dog tried to sniff out a sent no one found the hole until on the 23 of munwell a moth of this world the creators of the leaf found them still singing there song "we are the underground ogeres ogeres of the worlddddd." With that the song ended and they drew there clubs and charged and the others picked up marshmallows and through them at the ogeres with open mouths and when the hit the ogeres they went to sleep the enchantment worked with more power on ogeres and now they could only be awakend by the King saying "oblahpiticoop " but he did not no that . Now as we where saying others would try to push them into holes and that is how they found the hole when somebody pushed an ogere into a hole he did not come out saying "musttan" in fact he did not come out at all and the somebody who did it was the dog!

Now in a little bit later all the ogeres where done. The dog showed everybody the hole and they all jumped in.

Chapter 3

For some reason in stead of going to a new land ... A BLUE LIGHT SOUNDED THEM ! Then one by one they started to disappear finally mr. Mridangam was the only one left but he did not start to disappear ! The blue light stopped then he was worried his friends what had happened to them. Then he landed and looked this time it was a land of pizza but he wasn't going to be fooled this time! Then he saw someone eating it so he ate it. Then he heard 2 voices "yes , yes sir we will capture him and get the leaf with our coustumes and our so and so master leaf !"then he heard laughing "ha ha ha , ha ha ha". He kept on listening "our sets are perfect he will never find the button to dis-activate them". Then he thought "there is a button under his foot it must be it" then the other man said "now dress up as ogres and go".

Mr. Mridangam ran to the button, pressed the button and all the sets dis-activated but his friends weren't back he ran into his friend. Together they walked to mr. Mridangam's home ... DISCOVERING THAT IT HAD BEEN RANSACKED !!!!!!! In a hour they had everything in order but the picture of the tree were he found the leaf was gone! Mr. Mridangam thought that that must mean the thief knows that he has the leaf.
